Agrify Announces Completed Restatements of Prior Period Results

October 2, 2023

TROY, Mich., Oct. 02, 2023 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Agrify Corporation (Nasdaq: AGFY) ("Agrify" or the "Company"), a leading provider of innovative cultivation and extraction solutions for the cannabis industry, today announced that the Company has completed restatements of previously issued quarterly filings for the first three quarters of its 2022 fiscal year (collectively the "Restatements"). The Company will file its Amended Forms 10-Q for the first, second, and third quarters of 2022 with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") today.

The Restatements primarily relate to warrants issued in January 2022 and March 2022 that were reclassified as liabilities rather than as equity, which requires the warrants to be remeasured each reporting period to present them at fair value. As previously announced, the Company also completed a 20 to 1 reverse stock split in July 2023, which is reflected in the restated Forms 10-Q on a retroactive basis.

As expected, the Restatements did not impact the Company's cash position, business operation, or sales. The adjustments in the fair value of the warrants are non-cash items, but impacted earnings results. A summary of the Company's historical and current consolidated statements is as follows:
